

HON. J. E. TERRAL, SPEAKER.

Democratic Kiowa County Presents Candidate of its Leading Democratic Statesman for Speaker.

The Shawnee Daily Herald of Wednesday, has the following from its Guthrie, bureau:

"The sixth candidate to announce himself in the race for speakership of the second Oklahoma Legislature was Hon. J. E. Terral, of Hobart, a well known attorney, democratic leader and experienced legislator who served three terms as a member of the Mississippi legislature. "Mr. Terral has been at the head of the democratic organization in

Kiowa county for several years. His popularity at home is attested by his splendid race for legislature, having led the ticket in Kiowa county by about eight hundred votes.

"Kiowa county democrats who have visited the capital are urging Terral for speaker in the grounds of his personal fitness, but likewise insist that his election would be an appreciated compliment to a county that has been ever true to the organization and loyal to all party nominees."

LIVES OF MILLIONS IN GREAT JEOPARDY

THE ENTIRE NATION MAY GO TO PIECES WITH ONE MORE DEATH.

WILL THE SLAUGHTER COME

Life of Yuan Shi Kai Said to Be Key to Situation—If He Is Slain by Enemies Upheaval Comes.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Upon the life of Yuan Shi Kai, Grand Counselor of China, rests the peace of the Chinese Empire. This is the startling statement made tonight from a source so high that its truth can not be doubted. This phase of China's internal affairs has been communicated to an official of the State Department late tonight by a powerful Chinese influence with the hope expressed that the United States will see its way to aid in the protection of so valuable a life.

Should the enemies of Yuan Shi Kai (and they are the leaders of the various form movements, while Yuan himself is one of the most progressive reformers in China), take his life, it will, it is asserted, be the signal for an upheaval in China such as has never before shaken that Empire.

That Yuan Shi Kai realizes this himself is not doubted. The Grand Counselor is the real power behind the new throne, and with his demise, it is pointed out, would follow turmoil among all classes, even among the various branches of progressive reformers themselves.

Believe Rulers Were Murdered.

Tokio, Nov. 18.—The Japanese correspondents at Peking persist in attributing the death of the late Emperor to unnatural causes. They construe the arrest of the palace vouches as a verification of the theory that the Dowager Empress died first and that the Emperor was then slain at the instance of palace officials responsible for the Kang Yu Wei failure in 1888, who fear retributive punishment by the Emperor if he were permitted to live.

DR. DINWIDDIE ENDORSED

In view of the much bad talk being made about F. C. Dinwiddie, late head of anti-saloon league, in which he was accused of treachery, theft and other hideous sins, the Oklahoma City special hereunder is interesting:

Oklahoma City, (Special) Nov. 18.—Assuming all responsibility for the debts contracted during the campaign for state-wide prohibition, refusing to say anything about unfathered charges that Dr. F. C. Dinwiddie championed the cause of "Uncle Joe" Cannon, who has steadily fought prohibition in every turn and every form, and failing to name a successor to the Rev. E. L. Sweet, Jr., late superintendent, the board of trustees of the Oklahoma Anti-Saloon league met yesterday and passed resolutions emphatically endorsing the Rev. Dr. Dinwiddie for his Oklahoma victory.

No substitution was offered for the defeated "Billups booze bill," and it is said the board has abandoned the idea of proposing a substitute, believing that the recent vote on that state question was not a fair test.

Selection of a superintendent was postponed indefinitely and H. T. Laughbaum, assistant superintendent and attorney for the Anti-Saloon league, will act in the capacity of superintendent.

Expressing high appreciation of the character, ability and service of the Rev. Dr. Dinwiddie, the board says in the resolution that the victory for statewide prohibition was due solely to his wise generalship. Continuing, the resolutions repudiate any insinuation that there has been slack business management either on the part of the Rev. Dr. Dinwiddie or the Anti-Saloon league, that all of the funds are strictly accounted for, the accounts audited and campaign expenses approved by the board.

The resolutions further say that the work for perpetual prohibition and rigid enforcement of the same in Oklahoma will continue and especial stress will be laid on law enforcement in future. Touching upon the defeat of the state agency, the resolutions contain this section:

"The trustees of the Oklahoma Anti-Saloon league would hereby express their conviction, after a careful consideration of all the facts, that the recent vote on the state agency was not a vote against statewide prohibition, inasmuch as not a few ardent prohibitionists were not in favor of a state agency, and thousands of the same kind of prohibitionists were opposed to the extension of the agency, fearing that it might result in a party machine, and to their feeling that the enabling act, and therefore they voted against it."

CEMENT AS A SUBSTITUTE FOR WOOD.

(From Dallas News.)

The tendency toward more substantial buildings is general, and it will not be many years before the tinder box for "a house" will be a danger of the past. One thing that has done most to promote such change is the large increase in the manufacture of cement.

The relation between the increasing use of cement and the diminishing timber supply in the United States has been the subject of some interesting correspondence between the Geological Survey and the Forest Service at Washington. In a letter to the Forester, the Director of the Survey took occasion to quote from a statement of a large Philadelphia firm to the effect that it would be difficult to estimate what the additional drain on the lumber supply would have been during the last few years had not cement come into such general use. The Forester replied in part as follows:

"The Forest Service is watching with a great deal of interest the increasing use of cement and other substitutes for wood. They are undoubtedly having some influence on the price of lumber, though I do not think that up to the present time they have greatly retarded the advance in lumber prices. The fact is that our industrial progress has been so great that our requirements for every kind of structural material have increased tremendously. We are using at the present time more lumber per capita than ever before, and probably twice as much per capita as we did fifty years ago. The conclusion can not be escaped, therefore, that in the future we must depend more than in the past on other materials than wood for certain purposes at least. As to the increase that will take place in the production of cement, my impression is that this will be very great."

The report estimates that if the increase in the use of cement in the United States in past years is to be regarded as any index to its future use, the conclusion of the Forester are well founded. The statistics of the production of minerals show that our output of cement has more than doubled in the last five years, and it is well known that its use is being very widely extended. This is due to two conditions: In the first place, excellent cement materials are common in almost all sections of the country; in the second place, reinforced concrete for heavy building material is receiving increased favor among engineers, while in the country regions large amounts of cement are being used for building blocks for smaller structures. Reports received by the Survey during the six years from 1902 to 1907 show that the production of cement in the United States has increased from 25,000,000 barrels, valued at approximately $25,000,000, to 51,000,000 barrels, valued at $55,000,000, the annual statistics showing a steady increase in production with some slight fluctuations in price.

MRS. BRYAN CAUSES TRIP.

Fellow Passenger Says Journey to Mexico Is at Instance of Nebraskan's Wife.

Sherman, Tex., Nov. 18.—Andrew L. Randell was a fellow-passenger with Mr. and Mrs. William Jennings Bryan through a greater part of Oklahoma.

Discussing the appearance and mood of Mr. Bryan, Mr. Randell said:

"The trip to Mexico is not really at the instance of Mr. Bryan's personal wishes in the matter, but because Mrs. Bryan demanded that he take a good rest. That the wear and tear of the campaign has told upon Mr. Bryan can be seen at once. He is very much in love with the democracy of Texas, and several times took occasion to refer to the magnificent majority it gave the cause. He says that the arrangements are such that he can make very few stops in the state this time, but he is surely coming back to see his friends. He may spend a few days duck shooting at Corpus Christi before going over into Mexico."

The political season is over, but the News can not refrain from publishing Mr. Bryan's after election address to the readers of his paper.

Mr. Bryan gives fine exposition of those fundamentals for which democracy stood and the impressed righteousness of them afford renewed comfort.

"To the Readers of The Commoner:

"The election of 1908 is over and the returns disclose a signal victory for our opponents but the principles for which our party stands, the policies for which our party contends—these are not dead. A good proposition is not made bad by rejection at the polls; a needed reform is not made unnecessary by an adverse vote. The legislation asked for by the democratic party in its last national platform was not of a temporary character—it was legislation which will be of permanent advantage when it is secured.

Does anyone believe that the American people will permanently permit secrecy as to campaign contributions? Does anyone believe that the American people will permanently permit the will of the voters to be thwarted, as it is now, by the election of senators through legislatures? Does anyone believe that the trusts will be permitted to permanently exploit the masses? Does anyone believe that the consumer will permanently permit the tariff to be written by the beneficiaries of that tariff? Does anyone believe that the public will permanently tolerate estrangement between labor and capital? Does anyone believe that the fifteen millions of depositors will forever permit their savings to be jeopardized as at present? Does anyone believe that the extravagance of the government will go on forever unchecked? Does anyone believe that our republic will permanently consent to a colonial policy with its humiliations and financial burdens? There must be a party representing the people's protest against wrong in high places, against corruption in politics and against the oppression of the struggling masses; and the democratic party must continue its fight or dissolve. It could not exist as a plutocratic party.

During the last twelve years the democratic party has accomplished more out of power than the republican party has accomplished in office, and this is a sufficient reward for those who fight for a righteous cause. It would have been pleasant to have been able to reward worthy democrats with official positions, but the most worthy democrats with official positions, but most worthy of the democrats are not looking for official positions, they are looking for good government, and they labor unselfishly for the promotion of good government. They will neither be discouraged nor dismayed by defeat. They can not cease to be interested in the government for indifference would only invite more abuses than those from which we now suffer. The fight must be continued because a good government is the richest legacy that a parent can leave to a child.

As for myself, let no one care about my future. The holding of office is a mere incident in the life of those who are devoted to reforms. The reforms is the essential thing. If one can advance reforms by holding office, then the holding of office is justifiable; if one can best advance reforms as a private citizen, then the holding of office is undesirable. The world owes me nothing; I have been abundantly compensated for what I have been able to do. My life will not be long enough to repay the people for their support, and for the confidence which they have expressed. My gratitude to those with whom I have labored surpasses language and the days of the future will be devoted to work in the interest of the people as I understand that interest, and in behalf of those reforms which seem to me to be the best.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is not a symptom of, and not itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought about success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

It isn't so difficult to strengthen a weak stomach if one goes at it correctly. And this is true of the heart and kidneys. The old fashioned way of dosing the stomach or stimulating the heart or kidneys is surely wrong! Dr. Shoop's first pointed out this error. "Go to the weak of ailing nerves of those organs," said he. Each inside organ has its controlling or "inside nerve." When these nerves fail then those organs must surely falter. This vital truth is leading druggists everywhere to dispense and recommend Dr. Shoop's Restorative. A few days test will surely tell! Sold by G. M. Ramsey 29-dw-1mo

SENATOR RODDIE TAKEN IN CURSTODY AT LAWMAKERS' FIRST ANNUAL MEETING.

The above is a replica of the head lines with which the Shawnee Herald introduces the News report that Pontotoc's Senator Roddie has again been arrested on a very serious charge.

If the instigators of these criminal charges against our senator have not a good cause for their action, the counties of Pontotoc and Seminole constituting Senator Roddie's senatorial district should contribute money, if permitted, with which to prosecute any libelous slander against this favorite of the people.

It is, indeed, a deplorable imputation against the honor and intelligence of the people of this district to know that the metropolitan and county press of the state are reporting under glaring head lines the arrest for embezzlement of our senator.

Senator Roddie's constituency deserves the award of recourse against some one, for it cannot be gotten around, but that the influence of our senator will be seriously crippled within the program of legislative achievements this winter if the early proof of Senator Roddie's absolute innocence is not forth-coming and afforded wide advertisement throughout the state. Unquestionably Ada will stand by this legislator should he bring suit for malicious prosecution against his accusers.

Hereunder is the Oklahoma City special to the Shawnee Herald concerning the arrest:

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 17.—Senator Reuben M. Roddie arriving in Oklahoma City to attend the social meeting of Oklahoma's first lawmakers was finally served with the warrant, charging him with embezzlement, which has been in the hands of Sheriff Garrison of Oklahoma county for more than a month.

Several days ago the warrant was reported lost, but on Senator Roddie's arrival in this city he was arrested.

Senator Roddie was taken before Justice William H. Zwick and released on bond of $400. Senator Roy H. Stafford, editor of the Oklahoman, furnished the bond. Roddie lives at Ada.

ROOSEVELT AND HEARST FRIENDLY

BELIEF IS OLIVE BRANCH WAS CARRIED TO WHITE HOUSE BY PUBLISHER.

Washington, Nov. 17.—William Randolph Hearst called on the president last night and on a dentist today. Mr. Hearst came to Washington ostensibly on private business. It was intimated, however, by persons who are close to the independence party management, Mr. Hearst received an intimation from the White House the president was "mighty pleased" with the Hearst contributions to the late campaign. From certain statements made today it is believed, however, the White House visit was at Mr. Hearst's suggestion.

More than once during the progress of the campaign information was permitted to escape showing the president approved of Mr. Hearst's exposition of the Standard Oil letter files. It was evident the former disfavor in which Mr. Hearst had been held by the president was lessened considerably by his letter-reading campaign.

It could not be learned that anything very important occurred at the interview between the president and Mr. Hearst. The interview was necessarily brief, for the chairman of the independence party took advantage of an intermission between the acts at the theater to pay his call. The knowing ones say the interview was important mainly as an ice-breaker. It marked, they are confident, the beginning of the establishment of peaceable relations between the president and Mr. Hearst.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. THE SHOE MAN

"CROSSING THE JORDAN"

Transition From Territorial Regime To That of a Commonwealth

(BY R. L. WILLIAMS, CHIEF JUSTICE.)

The same human nature that existed in the Hebrews when they were favored with the personal visitations of Jehovah under the theocracy, remains in the human heart today, except as it is influenced by the spirit that Christ's mission on earth turned loose in the hearts of men. The selfish man, without its restraint, can not morally stand prosperity. The Hebrew, when they selfishly prospered, always went astray into idolatry or ungodly practices. Then followed interval of captivity in Babylon, or nearby countries, in which there was severe retribution. As a result of their envy and greed they are found down in Egypt, for three hundred and twenty years in bondage, as hewers of wood and drawers of water. The same merciful God that brought them back from Babylon, started them back to the promised land. But the same old sin,—impatience, greed, selfishness, and envy manifested itself. They thought they ought to cross in the promised land—and live in plenty, in less than a fortnight. They wandered and were lost, and for forty years traveled through the wilderness. They doubted God; they lost faith in Moses; they induced and aided Aaron to do wrong,—because they were not willing to meet the high test of perseverance, fortitude and faith, that was required of them to travel through the wilderness, over the Jordan into the promised land.

The people settled in Oklahoma and Indian Territory in a kind of political vassalage. They bore the relation in modern times to the federal government somewhat akin to that of the Hebrew people to the Egyptian government. The Hebrews were a capable race, competion efforts and designs needed for the public welfare. A state can not be successfully built in a day, nor in a year. But if it is started out on the right principles of justice and good faith,—with equal rights to all and special privileges to none,—those that help launch her, and with an honest heart and sincere purpose, help to continue and maintain her on this journey, will all be repaid in moral and principle and moral perpetuity. They may not get their acknowledged recompense at this time; but just as sure as right prevails, and God continues to reign, that day will come. The men in Grecian history, like Aristides, the just and truthful, in Roman government like Brutus and Cicero and the Gracchi,—who remained true, to right, long after those governments have crumbled and gone to ruin on account of their excesses and corruption, now live as bright stars in the great midnight of the corruption and excesses of those ages.

In no other state of this republic except that of Oregon has the governing power been so directly placed in the hands of the people. In the democratic government of ancient Athens there was class distinction, and not popular suffrage. In the time of the judges in Israel only is the principle of the rules of the people as provided in our old world,—with every civil privilege there is a resultant duty imposed on the citizenship,—when such duties are neglected a public wrong is done and neglect becomes a reproach to such principle of government.—It is the duty of every citizen in Oklahoma to directly participate in the settling of all public questions, for three reasons: First, because of his moral duty. Second, because of his personal interests as a citizen. Third, because of the practical application of the reserved power of the people to directly legislate for themselves. A neglect of this duty lends force to the argument long advanced that such plan is impracticable. Life, liberty and property should be sacred, and every Oklahoman should carefully, vigilantly, and patriotically act his part as a citizen in causing to be framed and enforced all needed laws to protect not only life and liberty, but also property, for the public welfare and individual happiness. No war should be made on property per se,—only when it is unlawfully used or acquired should the arm of the government be leveled against it or the individual or corporation so using or acquiring it. The greatest individual development consistent with the natural rights of others, should be encouraged. By such means the individual is equipped to participate directly in governmental affairs. Fidelity, honesty, integrity and justice should characterize not only our individual citizenship and business transactions, but also all our political and public affairs. The man that exercises his suffrage with this high purpose can be expected to exemplify the same in the private affairs of life. And such a citizenship has a right to demand such a high standard not only of public officials but also of party officials. He who will deceive and misrepresent in political affairs cannot be trusted as a public official. And when such wrongs are done and continued by political leaders let's examine our individual conduct and see whether or not we are responsible therefor either on account of our neglect or express act.—Let's on this first anniversary of statehood reconsecrate ourselves to the resolution to faithfully, carefully and vigilantly perform every duty required of us as citizens, and accordingly so act that Oklahoma may be, and continue to be not only the best governed state in the republic but also all her resources fully developed.

Whenever those holding the reins of government sought to postpone that day of opportunity not joining in the effort to better our conditions as then circumstanced, they forfeited their right to the favorable consideration of the suffering masses—they would have been Tories in the days of the revolution.

The Hebrews owed Pharaoh nothing, because he did not seek to make their condition tolerable; and the people owe nothing to those in authority who do not set in motion efforts and designs needed for the public welfare.

ADA'S GOOD SCHOOL BOARD.

Oklahoma City, which recently voted a third of a million dollars additional school bond, has awarded a contract to Layton & Smith, architects, for the construction of a $300,000.00 high school building.

Just previous to the award of the work, a sensation was sprung in the city council through the direct accusation by several members of the board that a great many offers of bribery had been made in connection with the bidding for the work in amounts ranging from $500 to $5,000 to the individual. The county attorney declares that he will make prosecutions of those architects and contractors alleged to have been guilty of bribery undertakings.

The city of Ada, at an early date, have $50,000 worth of contracts to offer through the required construction of additional school improvements. In such connection, it is gratifying to know that those citizens who constitute the Ada school

In view of the much bad talk being made about F C Dinwiddie, late head of anti-saloon league, in which he was accused of treachery, theft and other hideous sins, the Oklahoma City special hereunder is interesting

Oklahoma City, (Special) Nov 18—Assuming all responsibility for the debts contracted during the campaign for state-wide prohibition, refusing to say anything about unfathered charges that Dr F C Dinwiddie championed the cause of "Uncle Joe" Cannon, who has steadily fought prohibition in every turn and every form, and failing to name a successor to the Rev E L Sweet, Jr., late superintendent the board of trustees of the Oklahoma Anti-Saloon league met yesterday and passed resolutions emphatically endorsing the Rev Dr Dinwiddie for his Oklahoma victory

No substitution was offered for the defeated "Billups booze bill" and it is said the board has abandoned the idea of proposing a substitute, believing that the recent vote on that state question was not a fair test

Selection of a superintendent was postponed indefinitely and H T Laughbaum assistant superintendent and attorney for the Anti-Saloon league, will act in the capacity of superintendent

Expressing high appreciation of the character, ability and service of the Rev Dr Dinwiddie, the board says in the resolution that the victory for statewide prohibition was due solely to his wise generalship Continuing, the resolutions repudiate any insinuation that there has been slack business management either on the part of the Rev. Dr. Dinwiddie or the Anti-Saloon league, that all of the funds are strictly accounted for the accounts audited and campaign expenses approved by the board

The resolutions further say that the work for perpetual prohibition and rigid enforcement of the same in Oklahoma will continue and especial stress will be laid on law enforcement in future Touching upon the defeat of the state agency the resolutions contain this section

"The trustees of the Oklahoma Anti-Saloon league would hereby express their conviction after a careful consideration of all the facts, that the recent vote on the state agency was not a vote against statewide prohibition, inasmuch as not a few ardent prohibitionists were not in favor of a state agency, and thousands of the same kind of prohibitionists were opposed to the extension of the agency, fearing that it might result in a party machine, and to their feeling that the enabling act and therefore they voted against it"

CEMENT AS A SUBSTITUTE FOR WOOD.

(From Dallas News.)

The tendency toward more substantial buildings is general, and it will not be many years before the tinder box for "a house" will be a danger of the past. One thing that has done most to promote such change is the large increase in the manufacture of cement.

The relation between the increasing use of cement and the diminishing timber supply in the United States has been the subject of some interesting correspondence between the Geological Survey and the Forest Service at Washington. In a letter to the Forester, the Director of the Survey took occasion to quote from a statement of a large Philadelphia firm to the effect that it would be difficult to estimate what the additional drain on the lumber supply would have been during the last few years had not cement come into such general use. The Forester replied in part as follows:

"The Forest Service is watching with a great deal of interest the increasing use of cement and other substitutes for wood. They are undoubtedly having some influence on the price of lumber, though I do not think that up to the present time they have greatly retarded the advance in lumber prices. The fact is that our industrial progress has been so great that our requirements for every kind of structural material have increased tremendously. We are using at the present time more lumber per capita than ever before, and probably twice as much per capita as we did fifty years ago. The conclusion can not be escaped, therefore, that in the future we must depend more than in the past on other materials than wood for certain purposes at least. As to the increase that will take place in the production of cement, my impression is that this will be very great."

The report estimates that if the increase in the use of cement in the United States in past years is to be regarded as any index to its future use, the conclusion of the Forester are well founded. The statistics of the production of minerals show that our output of cement has more than doubled in the last five years, and it is well known that its use is being very widely extended. This is due to two conditions: In the first place, excellent cement materials are common in almost all sections of the country; in the second place, reinforced concrete for heavy building material is receiving increased favor among engineers, while in the country regions large amounts of cement are being used for building blocks for smaller structures. Reports received by the Survey during the six years from 1902 to 1907 show that the production of cement in the United States has increased from 25,000,000 barrels, valued at approximately $25,000,000, to 51,000,000 barrels, valued at $55,000,000, the annual statistics showing a steady increase in production with some slight fluctuations in price.

MRS. BRYAN CAUSES TRIP.

Fellow Passenger Says Journey to Mexico Is at Instance of Ne-braskan's Wife.

Sherman, Tex., Nov. 13.—Andrew L. Randall was a fellow-passenger with Mr. and Mrs. William Jennings Bryan through a greater part of Oklahoma.

Discussing the appearance and mood of Mr. Bryan, Mr. Randall said:

"The trip to Mexico is not really at the instance of Mr. Bryan's personal wishes in the matter, but because Mrs. Bryan demanded that he take a good rest. That the wear and tear of the campaign has told upon Mr. Bryan can be seen at once. He is very much in love with the democracy of Texas, and several times took occasion to refer to the magnificent majority it gave the cause. He says that the arrangements are such that he can make very few stops in the state this time, but he is surely coming back to see his friends. He may spend a few days duck shooting at Corpus Christi before going over into Mexico."

The political season is over, but the News can not refrain from publishing Mr. Bryan's after election address to the readers of his paper.

Mr. Bryan gives fine exposition of those fundamentals for which democracy stood and the impressed righteousness of them afford renewed comfort.

"To the Readers of The Commoner:
The election of 1908 is over and the returns disclose a signal victory for our opponents but the principles for which our party stands, the policies for which our party contends—these are not dead. A good proposition is not made bad by rejection at the polls; a needed reform is not made unnecessary by an adverse vote. The legislation asked for by the democratic party in its last national platform was not of a temporary character—it was legislation which will be of permanent advantage when it is secured.

Does anyone believe that the American people will permanently permit secrecy as to campaign contributions? Does anyone believe that the American people will permanently permit the will of the voters to be thwarted, as it is now, by the election of senators through legislatures? Does anyone believe that the trusts will be permitted to permanently exploit the masses? Does anyone believe that the consumer will permanently permit the tariff to be written by the beneficiaries of that tariff? Does anyone believe that the public will permanently tolerate estrangement between labor and capital? Does anyone believe that the fifteen millions of depositors will forever permit their savings to be jeopardized as at present? Does anyone believe that the extravagance of the government will go on forever unchecked? Does anyone believe that our republic will permanently consent to a colonial policy with its humiliations and financial burdens? There must be a party representing the people's protest against wrong in high places, against corruption in politics and against the oppression of the struggling masses; and the democratic party must continue its fight or dissolve. It could not exist as a plutocratic party.

During the last twelve years the democratic party has accomplished more out of power than the republican party has accomplished in office, and this is a sufficient reward for those who fight for a righteous cause. It would have been pleasant to have been able to reward worthy democrats with official positions, but the most worthy democrats with official positions, but most worthy of the democrats are not looking for official positions, they are looking for good government, and they labor unselfishly for the promotion of good government. They will neither be discouraged nor dismayed by defeat. They can not cease to be interested in the government for indifference would only invite more abuses than those from which we now suffer. The fight must be continued because a good government is the richest legacy that a parent can leave to a child.

As for myself, let no one care about my future. The holding of office is a mere incident in the life of those who are devoted to reforms. The reforms are the essential thing. If one can advance reforms by holding office, then the holding of office is justifiable; if one can best advance reforms as a private citizen, then the holding of office is undesirable. The world owes me nothing; I have been abundantly compensated for what I have been able to do. My life will not be long enough to repay the people for their support, and for the confidence which they have expressed. My gratitude to those with whom I have labored surpasses language and the days of the future will be devoted to work in the interest of the people as I understand that interest, and in behalf of those reforms which seem to me to be the best.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain species of Nerve sickness—nothing else.
It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought them action and power to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. With out that original and highly vital principle of such healing accomplishments were never to be had. For stomach diseases, biliousness, indigestion, flatulence, and all other ailments of the stomach, Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and you will see what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

I invite the co-operation of those who approve, and I shall not be deterred by the criticism of those who disapprove. With an abiding faith in the triumph of the truth and an unflinching confidence in the righteousness of our cause, I speak this word of encouragement to those who call themselves friends. I shall keep step with them and march on. The measure of our work can not be taken in a day. If we are right, as I believe we are, it will vindicate us; if we contribute, as I believe we are contributing, to a cause that is founded in justice, our efforts will weigh in the final victory.

"Yea, though thou lie upon the dust, When they who helped thee flee in fear, Die full of hope and manly trust. Like those who fell in battle here.

Another hand thy sword shall wield, Another hand the standard wave. Till from the trumpets mouth is pealed, The blast of triumph o'er thy grave."

It isn't so difficult to strengthen a weak stomach if one goes at it correctly. And this is true of the heart and kidneys. The old fashioned way of dosing the stomach or stimulating the heart or kidneys is surely wrong! Dr. Shoop's first pointed out this error. "Go to the weak of ailing nerves of those organs," said he. Each inside organ has its controlling or "inside nerve." When these nerves fall then those organs must surely falter. This vital truth is leading druggists everywhere to dispense and recommend Dr. Shoop's Restorative. A few days test will surely tell! Sold by G. M. Ramsey 29-dw-1mo

SENATOR RODDIE TAKEN IN CUSTODY AT LAWMAKERS' FIRST ANNUAL MEETING.

The above is a replica of the head lines with which the Shawnee Herald introduces the News report that Pontotoc's Senator Roddie has again been arrested on a very serious charge.

If the instigators of these criminal charges against our senator have not a good cause for their action, the counties of Pontotoc and Seminole constituting Senator Roddie's senatorial district should contribute money, if permitted, with which to prosecute any libelous slander against this favorite of the people.

It is, indeed, a deplorable imputation against the honor and intelligence of the people of this district to know that the metropolitan and county press of the state are reporting under glaring head lines the arrest for embezzlement of our senator.

Sensor Roddie's constituency deserves the award of recourse against some one, for it cannot be gotten around, but that the influence of our senator will be seriously crippled within the program of legislative achievements this winter if the early proof of Senator Roddie's absolute innocence is not forthcoming and afforded wide advertisement throughout the state. Unquestionably Ada will stand by this legislator should he bring suit for malicious prosecution against his accusers.

Hereunder is the Oklahoma City special to the Shawnee Herald concerning the arrest:

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 17.—Senator Reuben M. Roddie arriving in Oklahoma City to attend the social meeting of Oklahoma's first lawmakers was finally served with the warrant charging him with embezzlement which has been in the hands of Sheriff Garrison of Oklahoma county for more than a month.

Several days ago the warrant was reported lost, but on Senator Roddie's arrival in this city he was arrested.

Sensor Roddie was taken before Justice William H. Zwick and released on bond of $400. Senator Roy H. Stanford, editor of the Oklahoman, furnished the bond. Roddie lives at Ada.

$25.00 Reward.

To any city councilman or other citizen who had to do with bringing the street carnival to Ada, who will come to my home and be my guest twelve hours, and not afterwards admit that he had unjustly imposed upon the homes of East Main street, and feel down-right mean on account of it, I will give the Ada Military Band $25.00. The man with a sick wife in his home, just below me, I am sure would make the same proposition. Every man who would like to have the outfit in front of his home, say "I."

CARLTON WEAVER.

"CROSSING THE JORDAN"

Transition From Territorial Regime To That of a Commonwealth

(BY R. L. WILLIAMS, CHIEF JUSTICE.)

The same human nature that existed in the Hebrews when they were favored with the personal visitations of Jehovah under the theocracy remains in the human heart today except as it is influenced by the spirit that Christ's mission on earth turned loose in the hearts of men. The selfish man without its restraint cannot morally stand prospering. The Hebrew when they selfishly prospered always went astray into idolatry or ungodly practices. Then followed interval of captivity in Babylon, or nearly countries in which there was severe retribution. As a result of their envy and greed they are found down in Egypt, for three hundred and twenty years in bondage, as hewers of wood and drawers of water. The same merciful God that brought them back from Babylon started them back to the promised land. But the same old sin—impatience, greed, selfishness and envy manifested itself. They thought they ought to cross in the promised land—and live in plenty, in less than a fortnight. They wandered and were lost, and for forty years traveled through the wilderness. They doubted God they lost faith in Moses, they induced and aided Aaron to do wrong, because they were not willing to meet the high test of perseverance, fortitude and faith that was required of them to travel through the wilderness over the Jordan into the promised land.

The people settled in Oklahoma and Indian Territory in a kind of political vassalage. They bore the relation in modern times to the federal government somewhat akin to that of the Hebrew people to the Egyptian government. The Hebrews were a capable race compe-

tion efforts and designs needed for the public welfare.

A state can not be successfully built in a day nor in a year. But if it is started out on the right principles of justice and good faith—with equal rights to all and special privileges to none—those that help launch her and with an honest heart and sincere purpose help to continue and maintain her on this journey will all be repaid in moral and principle and moral per- petuity. They may not get their acknowledged recompense at this time but just as sure as right prevails and God continues to reign that day will come. The man in Grecian history like Aristides the just and truthful in Roman govern- ment like Brutus and Cicero and the Gracchi—who remained true to right long after those govern- ments have crumbled and gone to ruin on account of their excesses and corruption now live as bright stars in the great midnight of the corruption and excesses of those ages.

In no other state of this repub- lic except that of Oregon has the governing power been so directly placed in the hands of the people. In the democratic government of an- cient Athens there was class distinc- tion and not popular suffrage. In the time of the judges in Israel only is the principle of the rules of the people as provided in our old world—with every civil privi- lege there is a resultant duty im- posed on the citizenship—when such duties are neglected a public wrong is done and neglect becomes a re- proach to such principle of govern- ment. It is the duty of every citi- zen in Oklahoma to directly partici- pate in the settling of all public questions for three reasons. First because of his moral duty. Second because of his personal interests as a citizen. Third because of the practical application of the re- served power of the people to di- rectly legislate for themselves. A neglect of this duty leads force to the argument long advanced that such plan is impracticable. Life, liberty and property should be sac- rificed and every Oklahoman should carefully, vigilantly, and patrioti- cally act his part as a citizen in causing to be framed and enforced all needed laws to protect not only life and liberty but also property, for the public welfare and individual happiness. No war should be made on property per se—only when it is unlawfully used or acquired should the arm of the government be level- led against it or the individual or corporation so using or acquiring it. The greatest individual develop- ment consistent with the natural rights of others should be en- couraged. By such means the indi- vidual is equipped to participate di- rectly in governmental affairs. Hon- esty, integrity and justice should characterize not only our individual citizenship and busi- ness transactions but also all our political and public affairs. The man that exercises his suffrage with this high purpose can be expected to exemplify the same in the private affairs of life. And such a citi- zenship has a right to demand such a high standard not only of pub- lic officials but also of party of- ficials. He who will deceive and misrepresent in political affairs can- not be trusted as a public official. And when such wrongs are done and continued by political leaders let's examine our individual con- duct and see whether or not we are responsible therefor either on ac- count of our neglect or express act. Let's on this first anniversary of statehood reconsecrate ourselves to the resolution to faithfully, care- fully and vigilantly perform every duty required of us as citizens, and accordingly so act that Oklahoma may be and continue to be not only the best governed state in the re- public but also all her resources fully developed.

ADA'S GOOD SCHOOL BOARD.

Oklahoma City which recently vot- ed a third of a million dollars ad- ditional school bond has awarded a contract to Lavton & Smith archi- tects for the construction of a $300,000.00 high school building. Just previous to the award of the work a sensation was sprung in the city council through the direct accusation by several members of the board that a great many offers of bribery had been made in con- nection with the bidding for the work in amounts ranging from $500 to $5,000 to the individual. The county attorney declares that he will make prosecutions of those architects and contractors alleged to have been guilty of bribery un- der takings. The city of Ada at an early date have $50,000 worth of contracts to offer through the required construc- tion of additional school improve- ments. In such connection it is gratifying to know that those citi- zens who constitute the Ada school board are men of high integrity and superior business judgment. Through the substantially unani- mous voting of the school bonds last Saturday the present board of directors will be entrusted with the important trust of selling the bonds and utilizing the money to the very best advantage.

Ada's school board possess the entire confidence of the district. The personnel of the board is A. W. Croxton president, W. C. Duncan secretary, Sam Torbett treasurer, J. L. Barringer, D. W. Swaffar, W. H. Nettles, D. J. Austin, J. I. Mc Keel attorney.

HON. J. E. TERRAL, SPEAKER.
Democratic Kiowa County Presents Candidacy of its Leading Democratic Statesman for Speaker.

The Shawnee Daily Herald of Wednesday, has the following from its Guthrie, bureau
"The sixth candidate to announce himself in the race for speakership of the second Oklahoma Legislature was Hon J E Terral of Hobart a well known attorney, democratic leader and experienced legislator who served three terms as a member of the Mississippi legislature
"Mr Terral has been at the head of the democratic organization in

Kiowa county for several years. His popularity at home is attested by his splendid race for legislature, having led the ticket in Kiowa county by about eight hundred votes
"Kiowa county democrats who have visited the capital are urging Terral for speaker in the grounds of his personal fitness, but likewise insist that his election would be an appreciated compliment to a county that has been ever true to the organization and loyal to all party nominees

THE ENTIRE NATION MAY GO TO PIECES WITH ONE MORE DEATH.

WILL THE SLAUGHTER COME

Life of Yuan Shi Kai Said to Be Key to Situation—If He Is Slain by Enemies Upheaval Comes.

Washington, Nov 18—Upon the life of Yuan Shi Kai, Grand Counselor of China, rests the peace of the Chinese Empire. This is the startling statement made tonight from a source so high that its truth can not be doubted. This phase of China's internal affairs has been communicated to an official of the State Department late tonight by a powerful Chinese influence with the hope expressed that the United States will see its way to aid in the protection of so valuable a life.

Should the enemies of Yuan Shi Kai (and they are the leaders of the various form movements while Yuan himself is one of the most progressive reformers in China) take his life it will it is asserted be the signal for an upheaval in China such as has never before shaken that Empire.

That Yuan Shi Kai realizes this himself is not doubted. The Grand Counselor is the real power behind the new throne and with his demise it is pointed out would follow turmoil among all classes even among the various branches of progressive reformers themselves.

Believe Rulers Were Murdered.

Tokio Nov 18—The Japanese correspondents at Peking persist in attributing the death of the late Emperor to unnatural causes. They construe the arrest of the palace vouches as a verification of the theory that the Dowager Empress died first and that the Emperor was then slain at the instance of palace officials responsible for the Kang Yu Wei failure in 1888, who fear retributive punishment by the Emperor if he were permitted to live.

In view of the much bad talk being made about F C Dinwiddie, late head of anti-saloon league, in which he was accused of treachery, theft and other hideous sins, the Oklahoma City special hereunder is interesting.

Oklahoma City, (Special) Nov 18—Assuming all responsibility for the debts contracted during the campaign for state-wide prohibition, refusing to say anything about unfathered charges that Dr F C Dinwiddie championed the cause of "Uncle Joe" Cannon, who has steadily fought prohibition in every turn and every form, and failing to name a successor to the Rev E L Sweet, Jr, late superintendent, the board of trustees of the Oklahoma Anti-Saloon league met yesterday and passed resolutions emphatically endorsing the Rev Dr Dinwiddie for his Oklahoma victory.

No substitution was offered for the defeated "Billups booze bill" and it is said the board has abandoned the idea of proposing a substitute, believing that the recent vote on that state question was not a fair test.

Selection of a superintendent was postponed indefinitely and H T Laughbaum, assistant superintendent and attorney for the Anti-Saloon league, will act in the capacity of superintendent.

Expressing high appreciation of the character, ability and service of the Rev Dr Dinwiddie, the board says in the resolution that the victory for statewide prohibition was due solely to his wise generalship. Continuing, the resolutions repudiate any insinuation that there has been slack business management either on the part of the Rev. Dr. Dinwiddie or the Anti-Saloon league, that all of the funds are strictly accounted for, the accounts audited and campaign expenses approved by the board.

The resolutions further say that the work for perpetual prohibition and rigid enforcement of the same in Oklahoma will continue and especial stress will be laid on law enforcement in future. Touching upon the defeat of the state agency, the resolutions contain this section:

The trustees of the Oklahoma Anti-Saloon league would hereby express their conviction, after a careful consideration of all the facts, that the recent vote on the state agency was not a vote against statewide prohibition, inasmuch as not a few ardent prohibitionists were not in favor of a state agency, and thousands of the same kind of prohibitionists were opposed to the extension of the agency, fearing that it might result in a party machine, and to their feeling that the enabling act and therefore they voted against it."

CEMENT IS A SUBSTITUTE FOR WOOD.

(From Dallas News)

The tendency toward more substantial buildings is general and it will not be many years before the tinder box for a house will be a danger of the past. One thing that has done most to promote such change is the large increase in the manufacture of cement.

The relation between the increasing use of cement and the diminishing timber supply in the United States has been the subject of some interesting correspondence between the Geological Survey and the Forest Service at Washington. In a letter to the Forester the Director of the Survey took occasion to quote from a statement of a large Philadelphia firm to the effect that it would be difficult to estimate what the additional drain on the lumber supply would have been during the last few years had not cement come into such general use. The Forester replied in part as follows:

The Forest Service is watching with a great deal of interest the increasing use of cement and other substitutes for wood. They are undoubtedly having some influence on the price of lumber though I do not think that up to the present time they have greatly retarded the advance in lumber prices. The fact is that our industrial progress has been so great that our requirements for every kind of structural material have increased tremendously. We are using at the present time more lumber per capita than in 1900 and probably twice as much per capita as we did fifty years ago. The conclusion can not be escaped therefore that in the future we must depend more than in the past on other materials than wood for certain purposes at least. As to the increase that will take place in the production of cement my impression is that this will be very great.

The report estimates that if the increase in the use of cement in the United States in past years is to be regarded as any index to its future use the conclusion of the Forester are well founded. The statistics of the production of minerals show that our output of cement has more than doubled in the last five years and it is well known that its use is being very widely extended. This is due to two conditions. In the first place excellent cement materials are common in almost all sections of the country. In the second place reinforced concrete for heavy building material is receiving increased favor among engineers while in the country regions large amounts of cement are being used for building blocks for smaller structures. Reports received by the Survey during the six years from 1902 to 1907 show that the production of cement in the United States has increased from 25,000,000 barrels valued at approximately $25,000,000 to 51,000,000 barrels valued at $55,000,000. The annual statistics showing a steady increase in production with some slight fluctuations in price.

MRS. BRYAN CAUSES TRIP.

Fellow Passenger Says Journey to Mexico Is at Instance of Nebraskan's Wife.

Shenman Tex Nov 19—Andrew L. Randell was a fellow passenger with Mr. and Mrs. William Jennings Bryan through a greater part of Oklahoma.

Discussing the appearance and mood of Mr. Bryan Mr. Randell said:

The trip to Mexico is not really at the instance of Mr. Bryan's personal wishes in the matter but because Mrs. Bryan demanded that he take a good rest that the wear and tear of the campaign has told upon Mr. Bryan can be seen at once. He is very much in love with the democracy of Texas and several times took occasion to refer to the magnificent majority it gave the cause. He says that the arrangements are such that he can make very few stops in the state this time but he is surely coming back to see his friends. He may spend a few days duck shooting at Corpus Christi before going over into Mexico.

The political season is over, but the News can not refrain from publishing Mr. Bryan's after election address to the readers of his paper.

Mr. Bryan gives fine exposition of those fundamentals for which democracy stood and the impressed righteousness of them afford renewed comfort.

To the Readers of The Commoner
The election of 1908 is over and the returns disclose a signal victory for our opponents but the principles for which our party stands the policies for which our party contends—these are not dead. A good proposition is not made bad by rejection at the polls. A needed reform is not made unnecessary by an adverse vote. The legislation asked for by the democratic party in its last national platform was not of a temporary character—it was legislation which will be of permanent advantage when it is secured.

Does anyone believe that the American people will permanently permit secrecy as to campaign contributions? Does anyone believe that the American people will permanently permit the will of the voters to be thwarted as it is now by the election of senators through legislatures? Does anyone believe that the trusts will be permitted to permanently exploit the masses? Does anyone believe that the consumer will permanently permit the tariff to be written by the beneficiaries of that tariff? Does anyone believe that the public will permanently tolerate entanglement between labor and capital? Does anyone believe that the fifteen millions of depositors will forever permit their savings to be jeopardized as at present? Does anyone believe that the extravagance of the government will go on forever unchecked? Does anyone believe that our republic will permanently consent to a colonial policy with its humiliations and financial burdens? There must be a party representing the people's protest against wrong in high places against corruption in politics and against the oppression of the struggling masses and the democratic party must continue its fight or dissolve. It could not exist as a plutocratic party.

During the last twelve years the democratic party has accomplished more out of power than the republican party has accomplished in office and this is a sufficient reward for those who fight for a righteous cause. It would have been pleasant to have been able to reward worthy democrats with official positions but the most worthy democrats with official positions are not looking for official positions. They are looking for good government and they labor unselfishly for the promotion of good government. They will neither be discouraged nor dismayed by defeat. They can not cease to be interested in the government for indifference would only invite more abuses than those from which we now suffer. The fight must be continued because a good government is the richest legacy that a parent can leave to a child.

As for myself let no one care about my future. The holding of office is a mere incident in the life of those who are devoted to reforms. The reforms is the essential thing. If one can advance reforms by holding office then the holding of office is justifiable. If one can best advance reforms as a private citizen then the holding of office is undesirable. The world owes me nothing. I have been abundantly compensated for what I have been able to do. My life will not be long enough to repay the people for their support and for the confidence which they have expressed. My gratitude to those with whom I have labored surpasses language and the days of the future will be devoted to work in the interest of the people as I understand that interest and in behalf of those reforms which seem to me to be the best.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific nerve sickness—nothing else.
It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. With-out these original and highly vital elements, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.
For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and yellow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and dispense fully re-stored.

It isn't so difficult to strengthen a weak stomach if one goes at it correctly. And this is true of the heart and kidneys. The old fashioned way of dosing the stomach or stimulating the heart or kidneys is surely wrong! Dr. Shoop's first pointed out this error. "Go to the weak of ailing nerves of those organs," said he. Each inside organ has its controlling or "inside nerve." When these nerves fail then those organs must surely falter. This vital truth is leading druggists everywhere to dispense and recommend Dr. Shoop's Restorative. A few days test will surely tell! Sold by G. M. Ramsey. 29-dw-1mo

SENATOR RODDIE TAKEN IN CUSTODY AT LAWMAKERS' FIRST ANNUAL MEETING.

The above is a replica of the head lines with which the Shawnee Herald introduces the News report that Pontotoc's Senator Roddie has again been arrested on a very serious charge.

If the instigators of these criminal charges against our senator have not a good cause for their action, the counties of Pontotoc and Senneio constituting Senator Roddie's senatorial district should contribute money, if permitted, with which to prosecute any libelous slander against this favorite of the people.

It is, indeed, a deplorable imputation against the honor and intelligence of the people of this district to know that the metropolitan and county press of the state are reporting under glaring head lines the arrest for embezzlement of our senator.

Senator Roddie's constituency deserves the award of recourse against some one, for it cannot be gotten around, but that the influence of our senator will be seriously crippled within the program of legislative achievements this winter if the early proof of Senator Roddie's absolute innocence is not forthcoming and afforded wide advertisement throughout the state. Unquestionably Ada will stand by this legislator should he bring suit for malicious prosecution against his accusers.

Hereunder is the Oklahoma City special to the Shawnee Herald concerning the arrest:

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 17.—Senator Reuben M. Roddie arriving in Oklahoma City to attend the social meeting of Oklahoma's first lawmakers was finally served with the warrant charging him with embezzlement which has been in the hands of Sheriff Garrison of Oklahoma county for more than a month. Several days ago the warrant was reported lost, but on Senator Roddie's arrival in this city he was arrested.

Senator Roddie was taken before Justice William H. Zwick and released on bond of $400. Senator Roy H. Stafford, editor of the Oklahomaian, furnished the bond. Roddie lives at Ada.

$25.00 Reward.

To any city councilman or other citizen who had to do with bringing the street carnival to Ada, who will come to my home and be my guest twelve hours, and not afterwards admit that he had unjustly imposed upon the homes of East Main street, and feel down-right mean on account of it, I will give the Ada Military Band $25.00. The man with a sick wife in his home, just below me, I am sure would make the same proposition. Every man who would like to have the outfit in front of his home, say "I." CARLTON WEAVER.

ROOSEVELT AND HEARST FRIENDLY

BELIEF IS OLIVE BRANCH WAS CARRIED TO WHITE HOUSE BY PUBLISHER.

Washington, Nov. 17.—William Randolph Hearst called on the president last night and on a dentist today. Mr. Hearst came to Washington ostensibly on private business. It was intimated, however, by persons who are close to the independence party management, Mr. Hearst received an intimation from the White House the president was "mightily pleased" with the Hearst contributions to the late campaign. From certain statements made today it is believed, however, the White House visit was at Mr. Hearst's suggestion.

More than once during the progress of the campaign information was permitted to escape showing the president approved of Mr. Hearst's exposition of the Standard Oil letter files. It was evident the former disfavor in which Mr. Hearst had been held by the president was lessened considerably by his letter-reading campaign.

It could not be learned that anything very important occurred at the interview between the president and Mr. Hearst. The interview was necessarily brief, for the chairman of the independence party took advantage of an intermission between the acts at the theater to pay his call. The knowing ones say the interview was important mainly as an ice-breaker. It marked, they are confident, the beginning of the establishment of peaceable relations between the president and Mr. Hearst.

"CROSSING THE JORDAN"

Transition From Territorial Regime To That of a Commonwealth

(BY R. L. WILLIAMS, CHIEF JUSTICE)

The same human nature that existed in the Hebrews when they were favored with the personal visitations of Jehovah under the theocracy remains in the human heart today except as it is influenced by the spirit that Christ's mission on earth turned loose in the hearts of men. The selfish man without its restraint cannot morally stand prosperity. The Hebrew when they selfishly prospered always went astray into idolatry or ungodly practices. Then followed interval of captivity in Babylon, or nearby countries in which there was severe retribution. As a result of their envy and greed they are found down in Egypt, for three hundred and twenty years in bondage, as hewers of wood and drawers of water. The same merciful God that brought them back from Babylon started them back to the promised land. But the same old sin—impatience, greed, selfishness and envy manifested itself. They thought they ought to cross in the promised land—and live in plenty, in less than a fortnight. They wandered and were lost, and for forty years traveled through the wilderness. They doubted God they lost faith in Moses, they induced and aided Aaron to do wrong,—because they were not willing to meet the high test of perseverance, fortitude and faith that was required of them to travel through the wilderness over the Jordan into the promised land.

The people settled in Oklahoma and Indian Territory in a kind of political vassalage. They bore the relation in modern times to the federal government somewhat akin to that of the Hebrew people to the Egyptian government. The Hebrews were a capable race competent to build a government and to administer it but on account of sin and transgression were carried into Egypt where they were deprived of rights theretofore exercised by themselves.

The people settling these territories came to better their condition. As a rule they were not quite as prosperous as their neighbors or fellows in the other states. A few ambitious men in finance and enterprise came to enrich themselves but the great majority for homes to establish and own a permanent place of habitation. The church house would be built, cemetery laid out, the neighborhood school-house erected,—these would be as sacred in this new country as those left behind on the far-away hillside, plains or valleys.

No doubt a great many people were impatient and expected statehood would usher them into conditions likened unto the land of milk and honey in the days of old. When the Jews were taken back to Palestine they went to a land of opportunity. When we merged into statehood that transition brought us into an era of opportunity.

Whenever those holding the reins of government sought to postpone that day of opportunity not joining in the effort to better our conditions as then circumstanced they forfeited their right to the favorable consideration of the suffering masses—they would have been tormented in the days of the revolution.

The Hebrews owed Pharaoh nothing because he did not seek to make their condition tolerable and the people owe nothing to those in authority who do not set in motion efforts and designs needed for the public welfare.

A state can not be successfully built in a day nor in a year. But if it is started out on the right principles of justice and good faith—with equal rights to all and special privileges to none—those that help launch her and with an honest heart and sincere purpose help to continue and maintain her on this journey will all be repaid in moral and principle and moral penalties. They may not get their acknowledged recompense at this time but just as sure as right prevails and God continues to reign that day will come. The men in Grecian history like Aristides the just and truthful in Roman government like Brutus and Cicero and the Gracchi—who remained true to right long after those governments have crumbled and gone to ruin on account of their excesses and corruption now live as bright stars in the great midnight of the corruption and excesses of those ages.

In no other state of this republic except that of Oregon has the governing power been so directly placed in the hands of the people. In the democratic government of ancient Athens there was class distinction and not popular suffrage. In the time of the judges in Israel only is the principle of the rule of the people as provided in our old world—with every civil privilege there is a resultant duty imposed on the citizenship—when such duties are neglected a public wrong is done and neglect becomes a reproach to such principle of government. It is the duty of every citizen in Oklahoma to directly participate in the settling of all public questions for three reasons. First because of his moral duty. Second because of his personal interests as a citizen. Third because of the practical application of the reserved power of the people to directly legislate for themselves. A neglect of this duty lends force to the argument long advanced that such plan is impracticable. Life, liberty and property should be secured and every Oklahoman should carefully, vigilantly, and patriotically act his part as a citizen in causing to be framed and enforced all needed laws to protect not only life and liberty but also property, for the public welfare and individual happiness. No war should be made on property per se—only when it is unlawfully used or acquired should the arm of the government be leveled against it or the individual or corporation so using or acquiring it. The greatest individual development consistent with the natural right of others should be encouraged. By such means the individual is equipped to participate directly in governmental affairs. Fidelity, honesty, integrity and justice should characterize not only our individual citizenship and business transactions but also all our political and public affairs. The man that exercises his suffrage with this high purpose can be expected to exemplify the same in the private affairs of life. And such a citizenship has a right to demand such a high standard not only of public officials but also of party officials. He who will deceive and misrepresent in political affairs cannot be trusted as a public official. And when such wrongs are done and continued by political leaders let's examine our individual conduct and see whether or not we are responsible therefor either on account of our neglect or express act. Let's on this first anniversary of statehood reconsecrate ourselves to the resolution to faithfully, carefully and vigilantly perform every duty required of us as citizens, and accordingly so act that Oklahoma may be and continue to be not only the best governed state in the republic but also all her resources fully developed.

ADA'S GOOD SCHOOL BOARD.

Oklahoma City which recently voted a third of a million dollars additional school bond has awarded a contract to Latton & Smith architects for the construction of a $300,000.00 high school building.

Just previous to the award of the work a sensation was sprung in the city council through the direct accusation by several members of the board that a great many offers of bribery had been made in connection with the bidding for the work in amounts ranging from $500 to $5,000 to the individual. The county attorney declares that he will make prosecutions of those architects and contractors alleged to have been guilty of bribery undertakings.

The city of Ada at an early date have $50,000 worth of contracts to offer through the required construction of additional school improvements. In such connection it is gratifying to know that those citizens who constitute the Ada school board are men of high integrity and superior business judgment. Through the substantial unanimous voting of the school bonds last Saturday the present board of directors will be entrusted with the important trust of selling the bonds and utilizing the money to the very best advantage.

Ada's school board possess the entire confidence of the district. The personnel of the board is A. M. Craxton, president; W. C. Duncan, secretary; Sam Torbett, treasurer; J. L. Bairstinger, D. W. Swaffar, W. H. Nettles, D. J. Austin, J. I. McKeel, attorney.
